PARISH FAITH FORMATION

Divine Mercy: Since papal acts proclaimed the Second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday, a decision which represents the highest endorsement that the Church can give to a private revelation and subsequently the granting of a universal feast, as requested by Our Lord to St. Faustina, what then does this mean for us?
Pope Francis wants our parishes to become “islands of mercy in a sea of indifference”. Pope Francis literally wants us to bring “consolation to the poor...liberty to those bound by new forms of slavery in our modern society,” spiritual sight to those who have lost touch with God and human dignity to those from whom it has been taken. (Excerpt from Our Sunday Visitor)
