Funeral Guideline:

When someone dies in the family, please contact Fr. Haydock to set up the time for the funeral. Generally, it is difficult to have a funeral on Saturday. Cemeteries usually charge more for Saturday burials. You will need to meet with Fr. Haydock to discuss the details of the funeral. There is no open casket at the funeral mass. You must use parish musicians. Another person may join the cantor to sing. The final selection of music must be appropriate for a Catholic Mass. If you wish a rosary, you should do it at the funeral home. It is not done prior to the funeral mass.

Eulogies are limited to ten minutes. The time can be divided between several people. Written copies of the eulogies must be turned on the day before the funeral.

The parish is happy to help arrange a reception for you. Please contact Luanne Johnson of the parish staff.

*There will be no Adoration on Monday, Feb 6 due to the Sacrament of Confirmation
 Thank you - St. Bridget Parish Office*

RCIA Schedule:

February 1: “The Ten Commandments”
 February 8: “Social Justice
 February 15: “What is Lent?”
 (Meets on Wednesday’s at 7 pm)

YOUTH GROUP PARTICIPATION IN Our Lady of the Lake Homeless Shelter

The St. Bridget Youth Group will participate in efforts to support the Homeless Shelter at Our Lady of the Lake Parish the week of February 20th

We have responsibility for the following meals:

- February 22—Breakfast
- February 22—Dessert/Snacks
- February 24—Dessert/Snacks
- February 25—Breakfast

The volunteer opportunity consists of participating in the procuring, preparing and delivering of the meals at the times designated by the coordinator. It will also include clean-up of the kitchen after we have prepared the food. Typically, deliveries will be the day of the activity noted above. This may require parent participation for procuring and delivery.

There will be a Youth Group session at St. Bridget's on Monday, February 20th between 3-5pm to prepare the food for the week. This is a school holiday for President's Day. Two volunteer hours will be approved for any youth needing to report hours.

In order to be efficient and manage time and resources this opportunity will be extended to the first 12 youth who reply to parishoffice@stbridgetchurch.org.

Once we have identified youth who would like to participate, a complete set of details will be provided.

Questions? Please call the parish office (206)523-8787
