SOCIAL JUSTICE AFTER DARK

During the last week of February in the darkness of winter over 50 Saint Bridget volunteers supported the Winter Shelter for homeless at Our Lady of the Lake Church. Some parishioners were hosts that greeted the homeless men and women who sought refuge from the winter cold and wet. Other volunteers prepared and delivered delicious hot dinner meals, breakfasts or snacks. The homeless shelter guests expressed gratitude for the meals provided but more importantly the gestures of friendship and respect.

Saint Bridget Parish sincerely thanks these volunteers and all the parish outreach volunteers.

Saint Bridget Parishioners are encouraged to consider participating in Winter Shelter 2018.
